Greetings to everyone!

Recently I traveled to Alaska and Washington state. I felt the crispness in the air, wore a jacket, and sipped warm apple cider; a small taste of autumn weather. This time of year is reflective to me. The Autumn of life can be a strange mixture of nostalgia, blessings, and potential. It yields the harvest of seeds we've sown and braces us for colder days to come. It is also a great time to focus on God's wonderful blessings-family, friends, strength, shelter, provision, guidance, care, fruitful ministry, opportunities to serve, more time to pray and study His Word, and eternal life still to come. Autumn is a good time to focus on our commitment to God. Jeremiah 8:20 talks about the harvest is past and summer is ended and we are not saved. If you've never made a commitment to Jesus Christ, do it now, while there is still time. If you are a follower of Christ, remember to remain close to Him during the shifting seasons of life. During autumn, we all know that winter lies ahead, but if winter comes, can spring be far behind?

Thank you for giving G'Street CDC the opportunity to love and care for your child. Please take time to focus below on all the upcoming events this month.
Many blessings,
Deborah Eddie

The seasons come and go, so we should focus on the God who remains unchanged and unchanging. There's a lot of unwelcome change in our world and we are painfully aware that our children are growing up in a world far different from the one we knew as children. We also go through many personal changes in our life. But amid all the changes, one thing, one person, never changes-our eternal God. His life is always the same. His character is always dependable. His truth, ways, and purposes do not change. His Son, Jesus, does not change. It's so important to lay an early foundation that teaches this to our little ones so that during life's transitions, they know where to turn, to a God who is dependable, the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Separation anxiety

Babies and toddlers often get clingy and cry if you or their other care givers leave them, even for a short time.

Separation anxiety and fear of strangers is common in young children between the ages of 6 months and 3 years, but it's a normal part of your child's development and they usually grow out of it.

How to Ease Your Child's Separation Anxiety

By: Wendy Sue Swanson, MD, MBE, FAAP

Separation anxiety varies WIDELY between children. Some babies become hysterical when mom is out of sight for a very short time, while other children seem to demonstrate ongoing anxiety at separations during infancy, toddlerhood, and preschool.
